

Frosty spellings

Are there any words you need to practise and are finding a little tricky to remember? Writing things in lots of different ways helps us to remember.

Wrap up warm, take yourself outside on a frosty morning and write those tricky words in the frost! Maybe you could practice word walls or your 100 words, or even any words related to any of your home learning.

Where is the best place to write them? Do you have a shed that you can write them on using your finger? Or maybe you could write giant words on grass using your feet!

Leaf Hunt

Can you find a leaf that....

Mindfulness Minutes - "I wonder..."

Choose 3 'I wonder...' challenges to complete.

I wonder... how many colours of the rainbow I can find in nature.

I wonder... what I can create using 15 sticks I have collected.

I wonder... how many rocks I can stack before they fall over.

I wonder... what pictures I can see in the clouds today.

I wonder... what is under that log.

I wonder... which way the wind is blowing today.

How could I find out?

I wonder... if different things of different colours feel different temperatures in the sunshine. Find something light in colour and dark in colour and feel both. Is one warmer than the other?

I wonder... if I can find my shadow and then make it disappear.

Which was your favourite challenge? Can you create any of your own "I wonder" challenges?

Maybe you could add them to your blog so others can have a go!

Winter Leaf Hunt

Can you find all the different leaves shown in the hunt below? How do you think this hunt would be different if you completed it during a Summer month? What about Autumn?

My First Word Wall

I	a	the	and	to	was
it	he	we	in	went
my	they	on	said	is	of
she	you	me	up	for
day	go	all	at	like	are
get	mum	big	dad	can
going	dog	see	come	no	away
yes	this	play	am	cat	look

Perhaps once you have collected them all you could use them to make some art. Can you create a bird from the leaves you have collected? Or a self-portrait?