Dear Parents and Carers

Welcome back to the Summer Term! The children all seemed to have enjoyed their Easter break and have settled straight back into their learning. This term is always a busy one, with school trips (including two residential trips), Sports Day and planning for our new Reception children who will be joining us in September. I will keep you updated on all the activities in my newsletters over the coming weeks.

The Year 6 children are looking forward to their trip to Young Voices at the O2 on Monday and we have teams attending a netball competition, a football match and a cross country competition next week. I am sure that they will all enjoy themselves.

Please remember to send your child into school with a sunhat and a water bottle and a lightweight jacket each day as the weather is still very changeable.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Tracy Bryden
Executive Headteacher
