1st September 2021

Dear Parents and Carers

I hope that you have all had a lovely Summer holiday. Now that the restrictions have lifted, I am looking forward to welcoming all the children into school tomorrow, Thursday 2nd September, to the normal routine.

Please note that all 3 gates to school will be opened for drop off, so please use the gate that is most convenient for you. I would ask that all the children arrive on time and below is a reminder of the morning times:

All school gates to be opened at 8.40am.

Classroom doors to be opened at 8.45am.

All children in school and ready to start work at 8.55am.

We will be encouraging parents of children in KS2 not to go with their children to the classroom doors in the morning. The teachers in Years 3 and 4 will be at their classroom doors to meet the children.

All children will be collected at 3.15pm.

Please can you try and ensure that all P.E. Kits, packed lunches, water bottles etc. come in with your child rather than dropping them into the office later as it disrupts the learning when they are delivered to the classroom.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Tracy Bryden

Executive Headteacher
