5th February 2021

Dear Parents and Carers

I cannot believe that there is only one week left in this half term, where has the time gone? Thank you as always, for your support with the children's learning both in school and at home. I think we will all be ready for a break in half term from 15th February!

We usually send home tick sheet reports at the end of each half term, however due to the current style of teaching we thought it would be better if the teachers telephoned parents to discuss their child's progress. These telephone calls will start from Monday next week.

On Monday 8th February at 9.05am I will be holding my usual whole school assembly and I hope you will all be able to join me. The link to the assembly is:

Please remember to send in your mileage each week, I am really looking forward to seeing the totals for each class. I hope that you are all enjoying the non-screen time that we have introduced this week. These appear to have been received very positively in school by both the children and the teachers.

Please continue to stay safe and well.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Tracy Bryden
